

When You Are Word of the Day

Your main role is to introduce new words to the members.

Several days before the meeting, select a Word of the Day.

- It should be one that will help members increase their vocabulary – a word that can be incorporated easily into everyday conversation but is different from the way people usually express themselves.
- Adjectives and adverbs are more adaptable than nouns or verbs, but feel free to select your own special word.
- Print your word, its part of speech (adjective, adverb, noun, verb) and a brief definition in letters large enough to be seen from the back of the room (or it can be written on the board).
- Prepare a sentence showing how the word is used.

The “Word of the Day” should tie in with the theme of the meeting.

At the request of the Toastmaster, present the “Word of the Day” by giving a definition, correct spelling and possible uses of the word in a sentence.

When the General Evaluator asks for your report, give the names of participants who used the “Word of the Day” in their answer.
